Mr. Sydney P. Noe,
Secretary American Numismatic Society,
156th St. & Broadway, New York.

Dear Sir:

I have been told that the American Numismatic Society will identify and give information about coins, for a small fee. I am writing to ask if this is correct, because I am in need of such service. I have some coins which I bought from people who knew very little about them, and I would gladly pay a reasonable fee for positive identification and a little information that I could rely on. Will you please write and tell me if it is true, and if so, where to send the coins and the amount of the fee. I enclose stamp for reply.

Sincerely,
Hugh R. Brickert.

Mr. Hugh R. Brickert,

Dear Sir:

We do not make a practice of attributing coinages as we have all that we can attend to. Whenever we do give such service, we have to make a charge of from ten to 25 cents per coin.

Very truly yours,

Curator
